ON THE BEAUTIFUL AZAMARA QUEST

SMALL BOUTIQUE INCLUSIVE CRUISING- DESTINATION IMMERSION- OVERNIGHTS -LATE STAYS-OPEN DINING -COUNTRY CLUB CASUAL DRESS

Join Azamara's maiden voyages to Alaska, America's 49th state and one of its most scenic frontiers. See stunning fjords, calving glaciers, and wildlife including whales, eagles and bears. Dine on snow-white halibut, salmon and king crab, and sip wines from acclaimed vineyards of the Pacific Northwest. You'll love Azamara's immersive approach to travel, with small-group opportunities to meet local people, learn native traditions, and experience the region's history as a rough and rugged explorers' outpost.

Begin with a bang as we sail to blue-lit Hubbard Glacier—a fitting introduction to a region where nature makes the rules and people follow them. Be part of immersive experiences in every port: learn native Tlingit history in Icy Straits, explore the Russian fur-trapper culture of Sitka, and re-live the gold-rush era with a spine-tingling ride on the White Pass narrow-gauge railway in Skagway. You'll have a front-row seat as we sail Alaska's Inside Passage, a showcase of glacier-capped mountains, winding fjords, small islands and wildlife. Go dog-sledding, take a hike in scenic Tongass National Forest, canoe through icebergs to Mendenhall Glacier, and sip a brew at the Red Onion, a former gold rush brothel. The TV show Northern Exposure was filmed in Haines, a quintessential Alaskan town, and you'll get to soak up all the beauty of this little jewel without the crowds (big ships can't dock here). Birders won't want to miss the beautiful Valley of the Eagles where eagles breed and soar. Re-enter city life gently in Victoria's walkable, pretty harbor, and sip high tea at the famous Empress Hotel before arrival in Vancouver.
